SAN FRANCISCO, DECEMBER 18, 1849.

NO. 50.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Tuesday, Dec. 18, 1849.

Meeting of the Legislature.

We are indebted to the promptness and courtesy of Messrs. Berford & Co's. Express, for the following report of the Meeting of the House of Delegates, at San Jose, on Saturday, the 15th instant. It will be seen that the House adjourned till yesterday, a quorum not being present. This circumstance is doubtless attributable to the state of the roads and of the weather, which has rendered it so difficult for the members to reach San Jose during the last few days. We presume that a sufficient number of members must have arrived to proceed with the organization of both Houses on Monday.

SATURDAY, Dec. 15th, 1849.

Pursuant to the requisition of the Constitution, the House met.

On motion of Mr. Voorhies, of San Francisco, Mr. Walthall, of Sacramento, was called to the Chair, and Mr. Morehead of San Joaquin, was appointed Clerk, pro tem.

The Clerk proceeded to call the names of the members elected, and the following gentlemen answered to their names:

Messrs. Aram of San Jose.
do Baldwin, of San Joaquin.
do Creaner, of do do do Cardwell, of Sacramento.
do Crane, of Sonoma.
do Hughes, of Sacramento.
do Moore, of San Joaquin.
do Ozier, of do do do Tingley, of Sacramento.
do Voorhies, of San Francisco.
do Wetherby, of San Diego.
do Walthall, of Sacramento.
do Williams, of do do Morehead, of San Joaquin.

A quorum not being present, the House adjourned, on motion of Mr. Cardwell, until Monday the 17th instant, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The Murder at the Bella Union.

Since our last publication, we have received information, in an authentic form, of the details of this terrible deed, which has excited so deep a sensation in our community. The perpetrator of the crime is Reuben Withers, formerly of New York, who, it is said, has been lately engaged in mercantile business in this place. Arthur C. W. Reynolds, of Philadelphia, the deceased, is a painter by trade, and has been lately one of the performers in a band of Ethiopian minstrels.

Though the crime was committed about 4 o'clock on Friday morning last, we learn from the Chief of Police, Mr. Fallon, that no report of it was made to the police till Reynolds had been dead more than two hours. This delay in apprising the public authorities of such a crime, is alike unaccountable and unjustifiable. It is very generally spoken of in terms of severe reprobation. We understand from Mr. Fallon, that within fifteen minutes from the time he heard of the murder, he was in the room occupied by Withers, and in possession of the bloody garments found there. Since then, the most active measures have been taken by the police and the city authorities to prevent the escape of Withers, and effect his arrest; but having had more than two hours the start of the officers he has not yet been arrested. Mr. Fallon informs us that the house in which Withers slept, on Saturday night, was searched by the police on Sunday. It is supposed, as we learn from the Alcalde, that Withers has fled to San Jose, or Monterey; and prompt measures have been adopted to secure him, in that case Frank Turk, Esq., the second Alcalde, who officiates in the absence of Judge Geary, has issued a warrant, and offered a reward of $1000 for his apprehension.

Two inquests have been held on the body of Reynolds, the one on Friday, before the interment, by the Sheriff, and the other early on Saturday morning, by Dr. Colton, acting as Coroner, by the direction of the Alcalde. Some informality or insufficiency in the first inquest or verdict having in the Alcalde's judgment, rendered a second necessary.

We have received, from Dr. Colton, the following Report of the proceedings and testimony, at the inquest held by him, the verdict of which has been accepted by the Alcalde, as being regular and in due form.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

G. Q. Colton, Coroner, having been called upon by the Alcalde and District Attorney, to hold an inquest upon the body of A. C. W. Reynolds, who was found dead at the Bella Union on the morning of Friday, the 14th inst., a jury was duly summoned and sworn, and upon the disinterment of the body, the following facts were elicited.

CHARLES W. MACOMBRY being duly sworn, testified, in substance, as follows: that he recognized the body as being that of A. C. W. Reynolds, who died at the Bella Union on the morning of the 14th inst., between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock, A. M. At this time, deceased was asleep at a monte table, when a man by the name of Reuben Withers came into the room and ordered deceased to go out. Withers forced deceased out of the door, but he soon came back. Withers then ordered a man by the name of Brady to leave, which he at first refused to do, but at length did so upon Withers pointing his pistol (Colt's revolver) at him. Withers then returned, flourishing his pistol, and discharged two barrels, but whether by design or accident, witness cannot say. Withers then had more words with deceased, pointed his pistol at his breast, and backed deceased to the end of the room. Withers and deceased then clinched; Withers drew a knife, when Brady, who had returned, knocked him down with his fist, and on his rising Brady knocked him down a second time with a chair, and beat and kicked him. Brady then left the room, having been wounded in the leg, in the affray.

As Withers rose again, having the knife in his hand, his arms were seized from behind by Reynolds, when both parties backed up towards the end of the bar—Reynolds apparently endeavoring to pacify him. No others were near them at this time, and supposing the disturbance over, witness' attention was withdrawn from the parties for a moment, when, on looking round, he saw deceased leaning over the counter, and Withers going away with the knife in his hand. In a few seconds Reynolds was dead, and on examining the body, it was found that Reynolds had received a stab in the neck, above the collar bone.

WM. WHITE being duly sworn, corroborated the above testimony in the main particulars, stating in substance, that whilst deceased and Withers were at the bar, deceased endeavoring to pacify Withers—saying he was his friend, &c.—the latter turned his head, and seeing who was holding him, jerked loose from Reynolds, turned on him, and then left the room, with the knife in his hand, Reynolds dying almost instantly from the wound described. At the time witness was the only one near the two, and was about ten steps distant.

Dr. BRENT testified that the wound was made by a sharp instrument entering the neck, above the collar bone, penetrating downward, and cutting the aorta, a wound which was sufficient to cause almost instant death. He believed it had been the cause of Reynolds' death, as no other injury was found on the person of the deceased sufficient to produce it.

The Jury, upon consultation, agreed upon the following verdict:

U. S. A., TERRITORY OF CALIFORNIA, DISTRICT OF SAN FRANCISCO, SCT. Before G. Q. Colton, Esq., Coroner:—An inquisition, indented and taken at said district, on the 15th day of December, A. D. 1846, upon view of the body of Arthur C. W. Reynolds, then and there lying dead, upon the solemn oaths of J. H. Foster, E. Bryant, J. E. Durivage, Wm. A. Polk, Wm. Newell, G. Burdell, Jos. Eberhardt, Joel A. Jennings, E. A. Upton, John Johnston, A. McMillen and John Redmond, good and lawful men of said district, duly sworn to enquire, upon the part of the people of said territory, how the said Arthur C. W. Reynolds came to his death, do say that on the morning of the fourteenth day of December, between the hours of half past three or half past four of said morning the said Arthur C. W. Reynolds came to his death by a wound upon the neck, near the collar bone of said Arthur C. W. Reynolds, perforating the aorta, inflicted by one Reuben Withers, with a knife or other sharp instrument, which said Withers then and there held in his hand, of which said wound the said Arthur C. W. Reynolds then and there, in the district aforesaid, almost instantly died, and not otherwise: and so the jurors aforesaid, upon their solemn oaths, respectively, do say. Given under our hands and seals, &c. &c. [SIGNED BY THE JURORS.]

We subjoin the following statement of the testimony, taken at the previous inquest, held on Friday, as we find it given in the Alta California of yesterday:

MR. JAMES SULLIVAN, one of the proprietors of the Bella Union, testified that he saw the commencement of the affray. Withers went into the back room about 4 o'clock in the morning, where several men were sleeping on the benches, and remarked that he was going to clear them out. He woke up one or two and walked them out of the door. He then went to the deceased, roused him up, and took him out. He then returned, and was followed by the deceased and a friend, Mr. Brady. Withers again took hold of him and said he must go out. Brady asked what right he had to put him out, when Withers replied that it was none of his business, and, after some additional words, said that he must go out also. Brady said he would not. Withers said he would put him out, and Brady defied him. Brady pulled off his coat and Withers drew a pistol, cocked it, and presented it at the breast of Brady, telling him he must go out; Brady then said he would go, and went; Withers then said his friend must go also; he accordingly ordered him out, and, upon his refusal, presented his pistol at him. Deceased walked up to him several times, and Withers said, "If you don't go I'll kill you;" witness then walked up to Withers and told him he did not wish him to kill any one there, putting down his pistol hand at the same time; Withers said he wanted to clear the room; he then swung his pistol round and fired it; deceased then approached and told him he had fired at him once and he might fire again; other people rushed up, there was a scuffle, and Withers fired again; he then put up his pistol, and walked to the bar with deceased. Witness then left the room and did not return to the room until after the affray; as he was going out, heard deceased say, "you have drawn your pistol on me twice to-night," whereupon Withers called him a d—d liar; after the affray, as witness went in, he saw Withers standing near the deceased, who was leaning against the bar, but in a second afterwards he fell. He soon after died, before a doctor could be summoned. Withers went out, and witness has not seen him since.

MR. WILLIAM WHITE testified to pretty much the same facts. While Withers and Reynolds were disputing, the friend of the latter came in, had a scuffle, and Withers was knocked down; the friend of the deceased then struck Withers two or three times with a chair, and while he was doing so Withers made several passes at him with a knife. As soon as Withers got up he was seized by deceased from behind, who pinioned his arms. Withers struggled to get away, and deceased dragged him toward the counter. When released Withers walked away, and in a dozen seconds deceased fell down. witness could not say whether he was stabbed or not, as he saw no blow given; deceased got up once or twice, but fell down again, gasped and expired.

Two other witnesses were examined.

JAMES BRADY testified that after going out he returned again, and saw Withers standing near Reynolds, and disputing with him in relation to the firing of the pistol. Witness saw Withers feeling for a knife or pistol, and immediately knocked him down, and afterward struck him twice with a chair, receiving two cuts in the right side, and one in the left leg. He then went to "Our House," washed his wounds and went to bed.

Several other witnesses were present, but their evidence was not taken.

We perceive, by our advertising columns that Messrs. Whyte & McAlpin have opened a general Registry Office, for mechanics, seamen, laborers and servants. As great inconvenience has been caused to merchants, captains, and others, in not obtaining labor expeditiously, when expedition is so much required in our fast rising city, there being, at the same time, numbers of persons unemployed in consequence of not having a proper place to apply to, we think that such a Registry Office will be, if patronized by the public, a great convenience in our community.

CITY ITEMS.

REPORTED FOR THE PACIFIC NEWS, BY J. JUDSON AMES, ("BOSTON.")

RELIEF MEETING.—The citizens of San Francisco, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, assembled in large numbers in Portsmouth Square. Sunday afternoon, pursuant to adjournment from Monday evening, when the meeting was called to order by Judge Bryant, J. Judson Ames and Edmund Otis, Secretaries.

The following named gentlemen, H. C. Murray, R. N. Berry, Dr. Hibberd Benham and Lieut. Bartlett, being severally called for, addressed the meeting in most eloquent and thrilling speeches, which loosened the purse strings of the by-standers in "double quick time," and brought down a shower of silver upon the chairman's table amounting to $141.31.

Mr. Berry on being called for, ascended the platform, and said that he did not come there to make speeches, but would remark that as long as he had a dollar, half of it should go to the relief of the suffering poor! "Gentlemen," said he, "this is the time for action, when men are actually perishing in our midst for want of the necessities of life! let every man walk up and put down the dust!" and suiting the action to the word he brought his hand down upon the table, leaving a little roll of paper, which on being opened, did contain the "dust," to the tune of $73.

The proceedings of the last meeting having been read by the secretary, together with the editorial comments on organization of this "Relief Society," published in the Pacific News of Saturday, the same was approved and ordered to be entered upon the minutes.

The constitution of the association as accepted in committee on Saturday evening, was then read and adopted by the meeting, when the following officers were elected, with power to fill vacancies—General Wilson, President; Hon. W. B. Almond, J. B. Hart, Esq., Col. J. T. Myers, and R. H. Sinton, Esq., Vice-Presidents; Col. J. T. Myer, Treasurer; J. Judson Ames, Secretary.

Lieut. Bartlett, U. S. N., submitted the following from the petition to the Alcalde and town council, which was adopted and ordered to be printed and circulated for the signatures of citizens of San Francisco.

To the Alcalde and Town Council of San Francisco.—This petition of the citizens of San Francisco, adopted in public meeting, and respectfully presented to your honorable body, as expressive of the public sentiment in the matter which it brings before you; and sheweth, that the citizens of San Francisco have beheld with lively satisfaction the efforts made by their authorities to provide for the care of such destitute sick and dying as may become known to them, by placing them in private hospitals where they are sustained at the public cost. But your petitioners believe that this provision is not sufficient for the demands now made (and daily increasing) by those who are coming among us, and who may be properly classed as the "floating population" of San Francisco, and who need the hand of charity extended to them to restore them to health that they may sustain themselves. And therefore your fellow-citizens do petition your honorable body to take immediate steps to lease or build and equip an ample City Hospital, which shall be of sufficient capacity to provide for the present wants, and capable of extension to meet future demands.

Your petitioners believe that this object may be attained at an expense not exceeding the cost of the present system, and for which the city shall have the benefit of a more widely extended charity. The cost at present is $500 per day for 100 patients in private hospitals, and when the fact is considered, that we have, in the waters of San Francisco, 300 sail of ships, manned by 5000 seamen, who are, for the most part, on shore, with all the recklessness of the sailor, and for whom the general government make no hospital provision, with the thousands who are flocking to our port from every clime, it is apparent that we shall soon have hundreds here who will need admittance into the City Hospital, or who may die in our streets, for the want of such an institution.

With these facts before us, your petitioners respectfully pray that your earnest attention be directed to this subject, and that an ample and permanent City Hospital be provided at the earliest moment, and under such regulations as shall meet the wants of our community.

Adopted by the General Committee on "Destitution and Distress," and presented to their fellow citizens for signature.

EDWIN BRYANT, Chairman.

J. JUDSON AMES, Secretary.

THE HEALTHIEST AND PLEASANTEST ROUTE TO NEW YORK—On the 24th December the fast sailing white oak built ship Clarissa Perkins, Captain Goodrich, will be dispatched to Realego, with passengers for New York, via the Lakes of Nicaragua.

This route is 1000 miles nearer than by Panama, and, avoiding the tropics, passes through a perfectly healthy country, abounding in the finest fruits, oranges, pine apples, melons, plantains, bananas, etc., and provisions of every kind.

A ride of three days from Realego, thro' the fine cities of Leon and Granada, and along the picturesque shores of Lakes Leon, Maraya and Nicaragua, brings the passengers to the waters communicating with the Gulf of Mexico.

Passengers will be conducted across under the guidance of A. Y. Bequer, Esq., as interpreter and caterer, and Dr. Donaghe, of New Haven, as physician; these gentlemen having recently arrived from Nicaragua. Mules for travelling, and all needful accommodations, are prepared.

A clipper-brig will convey passengers from St. John's, on the Gulf of Mexico, to New York. The trip through is much safer, healthier, more pleasant and as quick as via Panama. A liberal scale of provisioning is adopted by the proprietors of the line.

Passage through to New York (including travelling expenses and board in crossing), in the cabins, $275, and in the steerage, $220.

George Gordon.

Passage may be secured by applying to Macondray & Co., foot California st.

CUSTOM HOUSE.

San Francisco, Dec. 6, 1849.

NOTICE—The undersigned has just received a New York paper, containing the circular which follows, from the Secretary of the Treasury. It will be seen that the secretary has settled the question about to be submitted to him from this District. It will, therefore, be understood that the Law, with all its penalties, will be hereafter enforced.

J. Collier, Collector.

CIRCULAR TO COLLECTORS AND OTHER OFFICERS OF THE CUSTOMS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, July 26th, 1849.

It is represented to this Department, that in some of the ports of the United States, the erroneous practice prevails of admitting the importation of gin and other distilled spirits, in cases or vessels of less capacity than ninety gallons.

By the provision of the 103d section of the general collection act of 2d March, 1799, the importation of any distilled spirits (arrack and sweet cordials accepted) unless in casks or vessels of the capacity of 90 gallons wine measure, and upwards, subjects the said spirits to forfeiture, together with the ship or vessel in which it is imported. The act of 2d March, 1827, makes a farther exception, as it relates to brandy, admitting that article in casks of a capacity not less than fifteen gallons; but with this single modification, the prohibitory provision of the act of 1799 above cited, remains unrevoked, and must therefore be strictly enforced.

It is due to the importers within those collection districts in which the erroneous practice referred to has existed, that they be immediately apprised, by a public notice from the Collector's Office, of the views of this Department in regard to importations of the article in question.

W. M. Merideth, Secretary of the Treasury

BLANK BILLS OF LADING for sale at the office of the Pacific News. tf

LOTS FOR SALE in the city of South San Francisco, offering the greatest inducements to persons recently arrived, who are desirous of locating themselves with superior advantages. The city of south san Francisco is situated two miles south of the city of San Francisco, immediately on the bay, having every advantage for the shipping, and is supplied with wholesome water in great abundance. A stream of sufficient quantity to supply both cities and all the shipping that ever may lay in their harbors, forms the northern boundaries of this place—is quite accessible and is about being conducted into reservoirs for that purpose. The harbor is more securely protected from the winds than the harbor of San Francisco, and ships of the heaviest burthen may at all times of the tide lay within a boat's length of the land at many points, and quite close along the whole front of the city, affording the best facilities to discharge cargo. The soil is free of dust, and is of a rich clay nature. There are extensive stone quarries, and springs of pure running water are in many places. The surrounding scenery is highly picturesque, and a more pleasant place for residences, or a more convenient place for business is not to be found on the bay. The only good road from the city of San Francisco to the Pueblo of San Jose passes through south San Francisco, crossing the mouth of Mission creek and the mouth of the stream of fresh water already alluded to. On this road you travel along a beautiful valley of firm grass land to the puerteseño, a distance of less than two miles. Persons desirous of purchasing lots, which will wholly equal in value those of the City of San Francisco and provide for themselves residences on moderate and easy terms can do so by calling at the office of the undersigned in Clay st., where full particulars will be given them. HUNTER & BROTHER, Agent for the Proprietors.

CAUTION.—Whereas, one J. A. Sutter has published a notice, in which he claims title to the land on the east bank of the Sacramento river, between the Feather river and the American Fork, I hereby notify the public that I am the only legal owner of the said land, under a warranty deed from J. A. Sutter himself, dated Aug. 10, 1843; and I therefore caution all persons that no legal title can be acquired to the same, or to any portion thereof, except through me. Justice to myself requires me to add that I shall hold the said J. A. Sutter legally responsible, both for the libel on my character, and the slander of my title, which his notice contains; and that if its publication is the result of a conspiracy to defraud me of my property, I shall take care that the offenders be brought to justice as soon as a criminal court before which they can be tried, is legally organized in this territory.

Any person desiring to satisfy himself of my title to the above land, is invited to call on W. H. Tiffany, at Boston, or on the undersigned, at his office, sacramento street, San Francisco. Hiram Grimes
